Collectors' Limited Edition* Art Prints in Full Color

In these six pulpit-preacher studies, a gifted artist beautifully and vividly portrays the high drama of six key Biblical motifs.

*These works of art are reproduced in stated limited numbers. Thereafter, all plates and negatives are destroyed. When the edition is sold out and demand exceeds supply, the prints acquire the status of "collectors' items" which is reflected in their increased value. ("Preachers" series edition limited to 3,000.)

Ideal gift for clergymen, religious, lectors and readers, parish committee members—and anyone else who appreciates nice things. Beautiful wall pieces for rectory, convent, school and home.

About the Artist

William McCauley was born February 28, 1931 in Olustee, Oklahoma and received his fine arts degree from North Texas University. As a young artist, he was chosen to represent "Young American Painters" in the D. D. Feldman Collection which toured the U.S., Europe, India and the Middle East. Mr. McCauley's lithographs and silk screens are well-known to art connoisseurs of many lands and his works appear in celebrated collections in the U.S. and abroad. Mr. McCauley has had one-man shows in New York City, San Francisco, Columbus (Ohio), Atlanta, Philadelphia, Providence and Boston, and his works have been exhibited in many world-renowned galleries. He now lives in Frederick, Maryland working in his private studio.
