Astrology is the highest and most ancient of all sciences present from the beginning of Man's history upon earth. With the dawn of contemporary sciences of the space age, man has rediscovered the romance of the stars. The phenomenon of your character talents, potential, and future are hidden in the magic charm of this magnificent creation, a signed and numbered 500 serigraph edition. The graphics in this offering have been individually created and screened in MacCauley's studio. Each is personally signed in pencil by the artist. The strength and magic of his graphics are well known to collectors all over the world. MacCauley's graphics were created in the famous Mourlot Studio in Paris and are in the collection of the Smithsonian Institute in Washington, D.C. His first one-man show in Dallas in 1957 has been followed by others in Philadelphia, Washington, San Francisco, and New York City, where MacCauley maintained his atelier for 18 years in the now famous Soho district.
